THE GEORGE

OVERVIEW

As Dublin's only LGBTQ nightclub, The George has been a long-standing staple of the Irish nightlife scene. Opening its doors over 40 years ago, The George has been heavily involved in the Irish LGBTQI+ community ever since its inception.

Featuring nationally recognised drag acts, an award-winning venue, huge dancefloor and daytime bar, The George takes you from the afternoon into after midnight madness without skipping a beat.

With regular special guest appearances from RuPaul Drag Race Queens, drag contests and live music, it is the ultimate late night venue in Dublin.

Restaurant lunches and dinners, corporate parties, exclusive hires, live gigs, cocktail classes, summer BBQ's, finger food, award shows, weddings and day two weddings.

Whelan's of Wexford Street is in the unique position of being not only one of the most important live music venues of the last three decades, but also one of Ireland's most famous pubs, favoured for its warm, convivial atmosphere.

The pub opened in 1989 and since then, it has become a fully-fledged Dublin institution.

Experience all that Whelan's has to offer by escaping to one of the venues many nooks and crannies, where you're sure to find awesome gigs and a great pint any day of the week.

Pichet is a modern take on a classic bistro. Combining both French influence and modern Irish cuisine, it has been on the receiving end of numerous awards and Bib Gourmand's since its inception in 2009.

Pichet's menus are created with innovation and seasonality using traditional flavours to create unique new dishes. Using top-quality ingredients from local Irish suppliers, the dishes are locally inspired but with a French twist and prepared with extraordinary cooking methods.
